AGRICULTURE.

"FRUIT, VEGETABLES, AND HONEY GRADES ACT."

AMENDMENTS TO REGULATIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given that by Order in Council No. 2336, approved the 21st day of November, 1947, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following amendments to the regulations made by the Minister of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of the "Fruit, Vegetables, and Honey Grades Act," chapter 23 of the Statutes of British Columbia, 1937:—

1. By striking out in the "General" regulations section 8 (a), and substituting therefor the following:—

"(a.) Condition defects of any lot of apples, pears, plums, or cherries shall not apply against the grade at shipping point.

"(b.) If properly packed and held in storage long enough for the nature and extent of such condition defects to have developed.

"(c.) Provided that the average percentage of each such defect is stated on the Confirmation of Sale or other contract, and prior to shipment such document is submitted to the inspector for verification."

2. By striking out in the "Inspection" regulations clause (e) of section 10, and substituting therefor the following:—

"(e.) For inspections other than a 'car-load' (including truck, cargo, express, and freight shipments, reshipments, and 'local' maturity inspections, etc.):—

"(i.) The fee shall be based on the total gross weight according to the following schedule, with a minimum fee of $1 for 'C' or 'D' certificates. In computing the total gross weight, the weight according to package and product as established by the Department shall be used.

Gross Weight (Lb.)	Amount of Fee. $
Up to 1,500	0.25
1,501 to 3,000	0.50
3,001 to 4,500	0.75
4,501 to 6,000	1.00
6,001 to 7,500	1.25
7,501 to 9,000	1.50
9,001 to 10,500	1.75
10,501 to 12,000	2.00
12,001 to 13,500	2.25
13,501 to 15,000	2.50
15,001 to 16,500	2.75
16,501 to 18,000	3.00
18,001 to 19,500	3.25
19,501 to 21,000	3.50
21,001 to 22,500	3.75
22,501 to 24,000	4.00

"(ii.) For lots exceeding 24,000 lb. gross weight, the fee shall be based on the customary car-load quantity, according to product, at the rate of $4 per car-load of one product and $5 per car-load of more than one product for shipping-point inspection, and $5 per car-load of one product and $6 per car-load of more than one product for destination inspection. In computing the number of car-loads in the lot, half or more of the customary car-load quantity shall be considered a car-load for purposes of fee assessment."

3. By striking out in the "Inspection" regulations regulation 8 (c), and substituting therefor the following:—

"(c.) The Department may require reimbursement for travelling expenses, telegrams, telephones, or other items paid or incurred in connection with any inspection or reinspection made at a place other than an inspection point or other than where the request for such inspection is filed with an inspector.”

4. By adding the following in the “Grades for Fruit” regulations to subsection (d) of section 11 after the word “grades”: “applicable to shipping-point only.”

5. By striking out in the “Grades for Fruit” regulations the word “hulls” in the second line of section 16, subsection (b) (ii), also in the second line of section 16, subsection (c) (ii).

6. By adding the following in the “Grades for Fruit” regulations as subsection (b) (v.) and (c) (v.), section 16:—

“(v.) Shall be unhulled, unless otherwise specified between the seller and buyer.”

7. By adding the following in the “Grades for Vegetables” regulations to section 3, subsection (b): “Turnips packed to the above size ranges may be designated for trade purposes as Small, Small Medium, Medium, and Large respectively.”

8. By striking out in the “Grades for Vegetables” regulations subsection (j) of section 4, and substituting therefor the following:—

“(j.) ‘Fairly well bleached’ means, except celery intended for storage and Utah or green type celery, that the stalks are of a light greenish to white colour.”

(f.) To raise, or borrow, or secure the payment of money by mortgage of the Company's real or personal property, or otherwise, in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital:

(g.) To sell, assign, transfer, improve, develop, manage, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, all or any of the property and rights of the Company, and to execute all such agreements, deeds and assurances as the Company may deem expedient:

(h.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the Company's business or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(j.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities, municipal, local or otherwise that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain and to carry out, exercise and comply with, any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(k.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(l.) To buy, sell, exchange and deal in accounts receivable, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, hire receipts, chattel mortgages, lien notes and other securities in respect of the same or any of them; to take any of the said securities or commercial paper in payment for the sale of any personal property and to sell any of the said securities on personal property received in the course of its business:

(m.) To carry on all or any of its operations and businesses, and without restriction or limit as to amount in any Province of the Dominion of Canada, and in any other British or foreign country, subject to the laws of such Province, British or foreign country:

(n.) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company:

(o.) To lease, sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the property, real or personal, or of the business or undertaking of the Company, to any person, firm or corporation, and to accept by way of consideration for any such sale, transfer or disposal, any shares, debentures, debenture stock, bonds or other securities of any other company carrying on a business in whole or in part similar to that of the Company:

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q.) To buy, sell, trade in, and otherwise carry on the business of manufacturers of, and dealers in harvesting machinery, motors, engines, carriages, machinery and agricultural implements of all kinds and all materials, substances, appliances and thing required for, or incidental to the manufacture, preparation, adaptation, use, or working thereof, or the packing, storage or disposition thereof:

(r.) To manufacture, import, export, buy, sell and deal in goods, wares and merchandise of all kinds, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to manufacture, compound, refine, purchase and sell chemicals, dyestuffs, cements, minerals, superphosphates, soap, fertilizers, paints, varnishes, pigments, polishes, stain, oil, acids, alcohols, coal, coke, coal-tar, coal-tar products and derivatives, peat, peat products, rubber, rubber goods and products, medicines, pharmaceutical supplies, chemical and medicinal preparations, articles and compounds, separately or in combination, and under all conditions, and at all stages of preparation and manufacture:

(s.) To buy, manufacture, sell and deal in coal, coke, peat, wood and all kinds of fuel and hardware:

(t.) To purchase, sell, manufacture, handle on commission and otherwise deal in, cheese, butter, flour, hog products, grain and generally all classes of farm products, factory supplies and all manufactured articles, and to conduct a general warehousing and storage business, and in connection therewith to issue and deal with warehouse receipts, make and obtain advances thereon, and generally to do all things which may be necessary or incidental to any of the foregoing classes of business:

(u.) To purchase and sell grain and cereals of every kind, and to manufacture, buy and sell flour and other articles manufactured from grain or cereals, and to acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to own, sell, lease, mortgage, convey, improve and operate factories and elevators, buildings and manufacturing for the production and storage of all kinds of goods that may be produced from, or in conjunction with, grain or cereals of any kind; to buy, sell, trade and deal in the products of said manufactories, and in said grains or cereals in any state of their product:

(v.) To carry on business of warehousing and cold-storage, and all the business necessarily, or impliedly incidental thereto, and to further carry on the business of general warehousing in all its several branches, to construct, hire, purchase, operate and maintain, all or any conveyances for the transportation in cold-storage, or otherwise, by land or by water, of any and all products, goods or manufactured articles, to issue certificates and warrants, negotiable or otherwise, to persons warehousing goods with the Company, to manufacture, sell and trade in all goods usually dealt in by warehousemen; to construct, purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire, any wharf, pier, dock or works, capable of being advantageously used in connection with the shipping and carrying or other business of the Company; and generally to carry on or undertake any business undertaking, transaction or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by warehousemen, and any other business which may from time to time seem to the directors capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above or calculated, directly or indirectly to enhance the value of, or render profitable, any of the Company's properties or rights:

(w.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
